

Specialist Leader of Education (SLE) pen portrait

Jamie Wilson – Deputy Head Teacher at Everton Nursery School and Family Centre, Liverpool

Specialist areas:

Early Years

Assessment

Leadership of Continuing Professional Development CPD

Leadership of Initial Teacher Training (ITT)

Jamie's work experience:

Jamie is the Deputy Headteacher at Banks Road Primary School in Garston, Liverpool. He is a member of the school's senior leadership team and is responsible for pupil standards and achievement, pupil premium and assessment. He is also the schools designated safeguarding lead and has a strong record of accomplishment in early years practice and leadership.

This is Jamie's second Deputy Headship, having worked previously in role as Deputy Headteacher at Everton Nursery School.

Jamie is an experienced Specialist Leader of Education - having first being appointed as a SLE in December 2014 - and has worked in partnership with schools and school leaders regionally and nationally to successfully improve outcomes for children.